put the copy in the “Completed Entry Forms” section of the exhibition file.

I have asked a member of staff to ensure the work is taken to the designated storage area.

Terms and Conditions of Entry

1. The exhibitors will either live or work in Waltham Forest.
2. A maximum of 3 works can be submitted.
3. The fees are:

Per Art Work: £12.50 – or £6 (for unwaged).

Payment must be submitted in cash or by card when entries are handed in.

*Receipt for payment – please ensure your completed Entry Form is returned to you, after details have been added in the 'For Office Use Only' box by a Mill member of staff or volunteer. *This will be your receipt.

4. The Mill's Art Works team will be responsible for the selection and hanging of works and only exhibitors who are not accepted will be contacted (and offered a refund).
5. A signed entry form – see page 1 – stating agreement to these terms and conditions, and including contact details, must be submitted with all entries.

6. Submission dates - all work must be handed in to The Mill, 7 - 11 Coppermill Lane, E17, on one of the following dates:

Tuesday 9 September to Friday 12 September 2025 – 9.30am-5.30pm

Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 September 2025 – 10am to 2pm

7. Works may be for sale and prices should allow for 20% commission being retained by The Mill.
8. All work must have a securely fixed label on the back giving your full name, contact details and title of piece.
9. Work should be ready to hang with string attached.

The maximum size is 50x70cm and maximum weight is 2kg (although this is negotiable – in which case, email artworks@themille17.org with full dimensions and weight of your work).

Works can be in any medium – but, unfortunately we have very limited resources for displaying 3D work – and ask that you please send full measurements before submitting so we can make sure we can display it.

If you are submitting a short, written statement, this must be a maximum of 100 words and affixed to the back of each work, and be easily removeable. This will then be copied in the catalogue.

10. Exhibits will not be insured by The Mill. It is recommended that those with any concerns take out their own insurance.
11. All personal details provided by exhibitors will be used only by The Mill's Art Works team and will not be shared with any third party unless the exhibitor has given permission – eg for inclusion in the exhibition catalogue which will be on public display.

12. Collection dates - works are to be collected from The Mill on:

Tuesday 4 to Friday 7 November 2025 between 9.30am to 5.30pm – OR

Saturday 8 and 9 November 2025 between 10am-2pm

If you are not able to collect on those dates, please email artworks@themille17.org to agree another date, which must be no earlier than Tuesday 4 November and, ideally, no later than Sunday 16 November 2025. *The Mill does not have space to store uncollected works. Any work not collected by an agreed date will be disposed of.

MONOCHROMANTIC

The exhibition will be at The Mill from Tues 16 Sep to Sun 2 Nov 2025.

INVITATION TO EVENING VIEW

We will be inviting all exhibitors to a special, evening event on a Thursday – 6.30pm-8.30pm

Keep an eye on your email inbox!

We hope you will be able to come along to this social gathering where you can meet some of the Mill's Art Works Team and other artists who have submitted work for this exhibition.

Light refreshments will be provided by The Mill. See you there!

PLEASE NOTE:

- Clip-frames are not acceptable.
- You should ensure that your work is in a bag or other wrapping when you hand in - to ensure it is not damaged during storage. If particularly fragile, use a box and/or bubble wrap.
